Dear Pastor or Ministry Leader:

I would like to take this opportunity to ask you to consider our Junior Bible Quiz (JBQ) Ministry. In my 12 years experience as a children's pastor, there is no ministry that single-handedly provides more scriptures and Biblical truths than JBQ. We are in an age where sports are taking precedence over church services or activities. However, I can assure you that JBQ can provide the same thrill that sports do and still provide a spiritual environment for the children.

GIVE HONOR TO WHO HONOR IS DUE

As we close one quizzing year and quickly approach another, I stand in awe of the JBQ ministry! The testimonies of lives changed through this discipleship ministry are endless. This ministry is not without its challenges and trials, yet the result of hard work produces victory in the end. The power of God's Word will come alive in your kids!

I am so proud of the quizzers, parents, coaches, pastors and league reps who come together and make this ministry happen.

SMALL BODIES, BIG MINDS?

In a few weeks, our children will be off for summer vacation. With nothing to do to occupy their precious brains, children often times gravitate towards television and other multimedia resources. Instead of having their brain over stimulated with media, why not give them copies of the JBQ questions to begin to memorize God's Word? Can you think of a better way for these little ones to fill their "Big" minds?

LET THE GAMES BEGIN!

Please note that it is less than two months before the official start of our next JBQ season. With that in mind, I am attaching a copy of our 2011-2012 registration form. Please complete it and return it as soon as possible to the Penn-Del District Office (4651 Westport Drive, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055). I would like to encourage you to use the month of June to promote JBQ in your kids' ministry program.
